

Early Childhood Educator (ECE) – The Walnut House Early Learning & Care (Nelson, BC)

The Walnut House is a small, in-home multi-age program for children ages 2–5 years. We're looking for a warm, dependable Early Childhood Educator who is passionate about child development and play-based learning to join our team in a casual part-time role (approximately 8–14 hours per week).

There is flexibility for the right candidate in terms of days and times worked.

Perks

- Work in a calm, supportive environment with a small group size
- Flexible scheduling options
- Competitive wage: $28–$32/hour (including wage enhancements)
- Opportunities for professional development and further education supported by available grants (such as Infant/Toddler or Inclusive Practice specializations)
- Be part of a warm, nurturing, relationship-focused program

Responsibilities

- Plan and facilitate creative, child-led learning experiences in alignment with the BC Early Learning Framework
- Create meaningful provocations and invitations to play
- Develop pedagogical narrations that document children's learning and connect to the Early Learning Framework
- Contribute to a nurturing, supportive, and engaging environment for children ages 2–5
- Collaborate with the owner to maintain a calm rhythm and a high-quality play-based program

Requirements

- Valid Early Childhood Educator (ECE) Certificate in British Columbia

If you're a kind, creative educator who values connection, curiosity, and child-led learning, we'd love to hear from you.
